

Civic Mirror Video Permission Form

Dear Parents and/or Guardians:

My name is Regan Ross; I am a high school social studies teacher from Vancouver, BC; founder of Action-Ed Learning Resources Inc.; and the creator of The Civic Mirror program that your child has recently participated in at school. As you know, The Civic Mirror is an online and face-to-face simulation that turns classrooms into countries and students into citizens. It allows students to learn about law, government, history, economics, and citizenship by doing these things for themselves. It's a new and exciting approach to learning that's been used in over 75 schools across North America with huge success. You can learn more about the program by visiting www.civictimirror.com.

Over the next few months Action-Ed will be working with a video production company to produce a series of promotional and tutorial videos for the Civic Mirror. Our goal with these videos is to showcase how the program helps to make education fun, exciting, and meaningful for teachers and students.

You are receiving this letter for two reasons:

1. Your Permission – Your child's school has been selected to participate in the video interview process and we need your permission to allow your child to participate and include footage of him/her in the final products. The completed videos will be uploaded to our website, accessible online, and may be included in introductory DVDs.
2. Your Participation – We would like to invite you to participate in the video interview process by joining us at your child's school on "interview day," or by submitting your own video responses about the Civic Mirror and your thoughts of your child's video experience to us.

This is an exciting opportunity for everyone to help promote positive educational change that will make learning more fun, exciting, and meaningful. If you have any questions or concerns, or if you would like to participate in the video interview process, please contact me at reganross@action-ed.com.

My sincere thanks,

Regan Ross
